Chartering an Organization

Prechartering Process

Prechartering is an optional process with several advantages. To precharter a group, simply file a Prechartering Form with the Student Activities Center. Prechartering allows you to reserve meeting rooms and display tables free of charge in the Student Union Building, post notices and free use of SAC tables and chairs for tabling outdoors on campus. Prechartering is available for a limited period of time and is helpful in organizing a new group, recruiting new members, and publicizing activities.

Chartering Process

Chartering leads to official recognition of the student organization (CSO) by The University of New Mexico. Chartered student organizations are an opportunity for growth and leadership in a student driven environment with the support of the university. CSOs will have access to use several campus facilities, may rent/check-out event equipment and have various funding opportunities. An organization may charter at any time of the year, however all organizations must recharter every fall (after August 1st) regardless of when they chartered the previous year. Organizations who charter by the established fall deadline will be listed in the fall edition of the Guide to Chartered Student Organizations. Chartering does not constitute an endorsement of an organization, its program or purposes by the University. Chartered student organizations are not covered under the State of New Mexico’s General Liability Policy.

Steps in the Registration Process:

1. Attend a Chartering Workshop - The Student Activities Center sponsors chartering workshops in the fall and at least one officer (we encourage more) is required to attend. Workshops are a brief review of the policies, procedures, and services available to chartered groups. A demonstration of the online chartering program will also be given. Contact the Student Activities Center (sac.unm.edu, 277-4706) for a schedule. If there are no more group workshops scheduled, please set up a personal workshop with the Student Activities Center.

2. Chartering Form - Complete the UNM Chartered Student Organization Form which is available at the Student Activities Center’s website at http://sac.unm.edu. Click on “Student Organizations” and then “Charter System Login” on the left hand side of the page. You will need to login with your UNM netid and your password. If you have problems logging in, contact our office at 277-4706 or SUB room 1018. Organizations must abide by the stipulations outlined on the form and in the Chartered Student Organization Policy. See the column on the next page for the information needed to submit a charter or go to the “Start a Club” section on the Student Activities Center website.

3. Constitution/Bylaws - One copy of a current constitution (and by-laws if you have them) must be submitted electronically with the chartering form. If your organization is affiliated with a national or international organization, you must submit a copy of your local chapter constitution (and bylaws). UNM does not recognize national level constitutions or by-laws. Remember to keep a copy for your own files. See page 6 or the template on our website for a guideline on writing a constitution and by-laws.

Online Chartering System

Technical Difficulties

Contact the Student Activities Center (277-4706, SUB room 1018) if you cannot login or find other students in the chartering system database. We can fix these problems and add students to the database quickly.
Constitutions, Mailboxes and Recruiting

Constitution & Bylaws

Format
Constitutions should be concise and contain the framework of an organization. They should be brief, leaving the functioning procedures for the bylaws. Typically, bylaws are more often and easily changed (majority approval) while a constitution changes rarely and requires a higher level of approval such as two-thirds of the membership approval. Please go to the Student Organization section of the SAC website to get a template in order to assist you with drafting your documents.

Basics to include:
1. Date: Last date revised at the top
2. Name and Purpose of Organization
3. Membership Eligibility Criteria: Rights, responsibilities, dues, selection & resignation process (See Chartered Student Organization Policy.)
   A. Groups may distinguish participation on the basis of: grades, academic requirements, and participation in events based on safety and risk assessments which must all be documented within the Constitution.
4. Officer Provision: Including titles, terms of office, whether elected or appointed, and duties
5. Provisions for meetings: Including frequency and how called
6. Provisions covering rules of procedure and voting
7. Definitions of a quorum
8. Provisions for amending the constitution and bylaws

Mail Boxes at the Student Activities Center & Lobo Lair
Student organizations may request the use of a mail box at the Student Activities Center, Student Union Building Room 1018. Boxes will be given on a first-come, first-serve basis. Student organization addresses should read:

< Student Organization Name >
Student Activities Center, Box___
Student Union Building Room 1018
MSC 03 2210
1 University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM 87131-0001

Assign an officer mail box duty! When an organization disbands or no longer requires a mail box, notification should be given to the Student Activities Center. Mail delivery continues during the summer semester. Please don't forget to check your box during that time. Boxes are for organization use only and no personal mail should be addressed to the box.

Officers should empty the box several times a week. If a box has not been emptied for an extended period of time, email notice will be given to the organization to empty the box within one week. After that time, if no action has been taken by the organization, an email will be sent to the officers and faculty advisor notifying the organization the mail box will be closed in one week if no action is taken by the organization. All mail will be returned to the sender.

Recruiting New Members
New members are the lifeline of any organization. They bring new ideas, enthusiasm, and continuity with graduating and outgoing members. Here are a few suggestions for building membership.

1. Look at your organization's purpose and future plans. Know what you are going to promote about your group. Define your strong points in order to sell them. What does your organization have to offer? Fun, friendship, prestige, leadership opportunities, skills development?
2. Defining your organization will also help you to define your audience. Who are you targeting? This will help you focus, but don't exclude others who may be interested. Remember the UNM nondiscrimination policy.
3. How did your current members learn about the organization? What inspired them to join? Use this to create ideas.
4. Participate in University events such as Welcome Back Days, Friday Night Live, Information Fairs, New Student Orientation, Senior Days, etc. Reserve the display tables in the SUB or outside to meet students and pass out information. Put meeting and event notices in the Daily Lobo and on the Chartered Student Organization website.
5. Plan a reception, open house or pizza party to welcome anyone interested.
6. Show displays of previous events, newsletters, photos, and awards.
7. Have an official welcome and brief explanation of the organization and introduce current and past officers. Announce upcoming events and meetings. Make a bookmark with dates, times and locations to hand out.
8. Set up a website with your own address on the UNM server for all to see. See the Communication & Publicity section of this handbook.
Advisor Role and Resources for more information on getting a website. Don’t forget to use Facebook!

9. Send out a newsletter by e-mail or a mailer to prospective members, e.g. sophomores who will be eligible to join a junior society.
10. Provide a sense of belonging for current members. Word of mouth and enthusiasm of current members will create interest by itself.
11. Establish continuity. There’s high turn-over in student organizations from year to year. Its important to keep good records and create continuity between incoming and outgoing members. Otherwise, groups have to recreate the organization every year. This is too much work! Pass on the knowledge base that is developed each year.

Faculty or Staff Advisor Role
It is a goal of the University’s total education mission to develop the quality of student life beyond the classroom. One means to this objective is in informal contact between faculty/staff members and students. Since each chartered student organization at UNM is required to have an UNM faculty or an exempt staff advisor, it is an expectation advisors will view their role as an opportunity to fulfill this goal. The advisor can play a significant part in the development of quality in student programming by helping to formulate group policies, train new officers, and assist with regular program planning. In large organizations, the advisor may work primarily with the officers. In small groups, the advisor may have the opportunity to work with the entire membership. The advisor should attend a sufficient number of the group’s activities and meetings in order to know how the group is functioning.

Specific duties of the advisor include confirming chartering and University policy requirements are met. The advisor encourages the maintenance of good records of programs and activities in order to provide the long-term continuity of the group. Another responsibility of an advisor is to see the activities of the organization constitute no legal liability to the organization (i.e. that activities are properly planned, supervised, safely conducted and adhere to campus regulations and civil law). An advisor should also help the group evaluate its activities to determine whether they justify the time, abilities, energy, and resources devoted to them. The advisor is expected to encourage responsibility in advising campus policies and procedures.

At the beginning of each new school year, the advisor is notified each semester via email that they have been indicated as the advisor of a student organization. If they are unwilling to serve as advisor to that student group they should contact the Student Activities Center immediately upon receipt of the email. Every year represents a new opportunity to work with different individuals and offer new perspectives. If the advisor resigns, he or she is expected to notify the Student Activities Center. For additional information or support, please call the Student Activities Center at 277-4706 or stop by SUB Room 1018.

Advisor Resources
The Student Activities Center is always willing to meet with advisors to discuss how they can better assist the student organizations they work with. Just simply call 277-4706 or stop by SUB Room 1018 to set up an appointment. We can assist with subjects such as liability and risk reduction, troubleshooting, event planning, retreats, parliamentary procedure, campus rules and policies, motivation and responsibilities. We are currently in the process of creating an advisor handbook, however an excellent general resource guide and manual for advisors from ACPA can be downloaded at http://sac.unm.edu. Just go under the student organization section and click on Advisor Manual (ACPA)

Information for Chartered Student Organization Advisors on Campus Crime Reporting
Federal law requires UNM to provide to students and employees a yearly report about campus crime. The UNM Police Department publishes this report. Generally, crimes are reported to the UNM Police Department. However, as part of its effort to collect information about crime on campus, the UNM Police Department must survey certain staff and faculty to ask whether students have told them about being a victim of crime on campus. Under the federal law, advisors of student organizations are among the staff and faculty who must be surveyed. Each organization’s advisor will be receiving a short questionnaire from the UNM Police Department during the year asking they have received reports of campus crime. Advisors, please take a moment to complete this form as it is only with your cooperation that UNM can fully comply with federal law. Also, as a student leader or advisor, if a student in your group should report to you they were the victim of, or witnessed a crime on campus, please call the UNM Police Department with this information and also encourage the student to report it to the police.
Chartered Student Organization Policy

Chartered Student Organization Policy

Adopted July 2, 1992; Revised September 2000, December 2000, July 2014

I. General Description
Chartered Student Organizations (CSO’s) are formed to further the common interest of the members of the group and the University community. The role of chartered student organizations is an essential part of the co-curricular program at the University. Open to all eligible students and facilitated through faculty and staff resource persons, these organizations develop many opportunities for learning which supplement and reinforce the classroom activities for students.

II. Chartering
An application and handbook for Chartering may be obtained at the Student Activities Center. The completed chartering form and constitution and bylaws must be submitted for approval to the Student Activities Center. Each academic year the organization will be expected to submit an updated chartering form and constitution to be registered as a CSO. The organization and officers do not have the legal authority to enter into contracts on behalf of the University. Chartering does not constitute an endorsement of an organization, its program or purposes by the University.

III. Privileges of Chartered Student Organizations
a. Chartering allows access to some University facilities such as equipment, meeting rooms and display tables in the Student Union Building. Many of these facilities are available at no cost to the organization.
b. CSO’s may request the use of a mailbox in the Student Activities Center.
c. CSO’s are eligible to request funding from ASUNM and GPSA governments. Funding approval by each student government is determined by internal policies and is not guaranteed by University recognition.
d. CSO’s are eligible to receive advice and assistance in organizing events, fund raising and recruitment from Student Activities Center staff.
e. CSO’s will be listed in the Campus Guide to Chartered Student Organizations, published every fall semester.

Any of the above privileges or other benefits of a CSO cannot be transferred or reallocated to a University department or an off-campus organization.

IV. Requirements of Chartered Student Organizations
a. All Chartered Student Organization officers must be registered students at the University of New Mexico. Undergraduate students serving as officers must be registered for a minimum of six credit hours per semester. Graduate and professional students serving as officers must be registered for a minimum of three credit hours per semester.
b. Each Chartered Student Organization must have a minimum of two officers.
c. Each Chartered Student Organization must have at least five members.
d. One hundred percent (100%) of the membership of social fraternities and sororities and CSO’s identified by the Student Activities Center as sport and recreation organizations shall be UNM students registered for the requisite number of credit hours. For all other CSO’s, at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the membership shall be UNM students carrying the requisite number of credit hours.
e. The organization must have a faculty or professional staff advisor.
f. Neither membership in the organization, nor services provided by the organization will be denied to anyone on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, physical or mental handicap, age, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, or medical condition. This applies to all groups with the exception of those organizations specifically exempted in Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Exempt groups may not discriminate on any basis other than gender. Examples of exempt organizations are National Fraternal Organizations. Organizations may establish additional membership and academic eligibility for their organization.
g. The CSO’s current local constitution and bylaws must be on file with the Student Activities Center. The CSO must adhere to these governing documents.
h. CSO’s must meet all additional requirements developed by a University unit before using facilities or property under the control of that unit.
i. CSO’s have no insurance coverage from UNM for their activities. The University has insurance through the State of New Mexico Risk Management Division. However, the State insurance policy does not cover the activities of CSO’s, their officers or members. Therefore, liability for injuries or damages to members of CSO’s and/or third parties arising in connection with CSO activities are not covered by any UNM insurance.
j. One officer of each CSO must annually attend a Chartering Workshop given by the Student Activities Center which covers general information relevant to all chartered student organizations.
k. Organizations receiving funding from the University must follow the fiscal policies and procedures of the University. In addition, organizations receiving ASUNM and/or GPSA funding must follow the fiscal guidelines developed by the Student Government Accounting Office.

I. CSO’s must deposit all funds received from any source in a University account established by the University Controller if the organization also receives funding from ASUNM, GPSA, Student Fees, or other University funds.

m. CSOs which do not receive funding from ASUNM, GPSA, Student Fees or other University funds and who have funds in off-campus financial institutions cannot use the name “University of New Mexico” or “UNM” in the title of the account or the University’s tax identification number.

n. The organization must adhere to all applicable University rules and regulations, including the Student Code of Conduct.

o. If an event of the CSO is judged to threaten the health, safety or property of members of the University community, the request for scheduling may be denied by the Student Activities Center. Decisions can be appealed in writing to the Dean of Students.

V. Failure to Meet Responsibilities of Chartered Student Organizations

a. The Dean of Students Office is responsible for dealing with the failure of any CSO to meet the responsibilities outlined above. In response to such a failure, the Dean of Students Office may revoke or suspend the organization’s charter, or place the organization on probation with appropriate conditions. The conditions may include a fixed period of time in which the organization must rectify any failure to meet its responsibilities. Appeals of such a decision can be made to the Vice President for Student Affairs.

b. A CSO and/or its officers may be liable as an organization and/or individually for the actions of a member that violate the Student Code of Conduct if (1) the member’s actions received the tacit or overt consent, support or encouragement of the CSO and/or its leaders, officers, officials or spokespersons; or (2) the CSO conducted affairs negligently. Individual responsibility means the officer will be deemed to have committed a violation of the Code of Conduct personally, which will be dealt with by the Dean of Students Office under Article 4, of the Student Grievance Procedure. Collective responsibility for the organization means that the organization will be considered to have violated the Code of Conduct and will similarly be dealt with under Article 4, with the provision that instead of the possible sanctions of suspension or expulsion, a CSO is subject to the sanctions of probation, suspension or revocation of the organization charter.

c. The officers or leaders or any identifiable spokesperson for a CSO may be directed by the Dean of Students Office to take appropriate action designed to prevent or end violations of this Policy by the organization or by any person associated with the organization who can reasonably be said to be acting on its behalf. Failure to make reasonable efforts to comply with such a directive shall be considered a violation of this Policy.

VI. Social Fraternities and Sororities

A. Fraternities and sororities have special privileges and responsibilities, above and beyond the privileges and responsibilities of other student organizations. In addition to the other responsibilities listed below, fraternities and sororities must be members of the Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, Multicultural Greek Council, Pan-Hellenic Council or other university recognized representative council. The University establishes rules and regulations governing special fraternity and sorority activities, housing, recruitment, and system policies, through these councils, with final approval residing in the University administration through the Student Activities Center. Enforcement of these rules and regulations may be carried out through the councils, with final approval residing in the University administration through the Dean of Students Office and Student Activities Center.

B. Requirements

a. All members must be UNM students registered for a minimum of twelve credit hours per semester. UNM students exempt from the twelve credit hour minimum requirement include:

i. students with a valid signed Consortium Agreement

ii. students participating in a student-teacher program,

iii. students with written notification from the Accessibility Resource Center

iv. graduating seniors who need less than 12 hours for graduation

v. students with reasonable cause for not taking 12 credit hours.

At no time may a student be enrolled in less than three hours and still maintain active membership status.

b. Sororities and fraternities must agree to follow the University of New Mexico Fraternity/Sorority Risk Management Regulations.

c. The national organization must be a member of the Fraternity Insurance Purchase Group or have comparable risk management regulations that have been approved by UNM.

d. Each residential chapter shall have an annual fire and safety inspection by the appropriate governmental agency.

e. Each residential chapter shall submit a roster to the Greek Life Office of those living in the facility each academic semester, summer session and break period.

A. CSO’s identified by the Student Activities Center staff as sports and recreation organizations have special privileges and responsibilities, above and beyond the privileges and responsibilities of other CSO’s.
B. Requirements
   a. All members must be UNM students. Undergraduate members must be registered for a minimum of six credit hours per semester. Graduate and professional student members must be registered for a minimum of three credit hours per semester.
   b. Sport and recreation organizations must agree to follow all policies and regulations as contained in the University of New Mexico Recreational Services’ Sports Club Handbook.
   c. Sport and recreation organizations will be classified by Recreational Services as either competitive, recreational or instructional.
      1. Competitive – Organization competes against other teams at the local, regional or national level.
      2. Recreational – Organization holds practice sessions in which members compete with other members of the same club to develop and refine existing skills and enjoy the recreational and social fellowship of sport and recreation.
      3. Instructional – Main purpose of this organization is to teach members basic skills and develop interest in that sport.
C. Privileges

Applicable Laws

a. Title VI, Title IX ADA, 504 Regulations
   The statements and practices of each student organization (membership make-up, publications, constitution or by-laws, policies and procedures) should reflect the intent of TITLE VI, TITLE IX, 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Failure of a group to take corrective action, if in violation of these provisions, will mean withdrawal of recognition and support by the University. If you have questions concerning the regulations, call the Student Activities Center (277-4706) or Equal Opportunity Programs.

b. Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964
   No person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program receiving Federal financial assistance.

c. Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972
   No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

d. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 & ADA
   No qualified handicapped individual in the United States shall solely by reason of his/her handicap be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination.
Liability & Safety Tips

Chartered Organization Liability

The activities and practices of a Chartered Student Organization should at all times be in compliance with UNM policies and regulations and State and Federal Laws. Every effort should be made to carefully plan organizational activities so that the safety of those attending or participating is assured. Student organizations and/or Officers DO NOT have liability or medical insurance coverage through UNM for their activities.

Chartered student organizations whose activities involve physical activity or high risk of accidents need to be alert to the possible liabilities that might be encountered in the case of an injury or accident to one of the members. The University suggests you consider the following steps to reduce the liability of the organization and officers.

1. Individual members of chartered student organizations should carry some form of health, accident or disability insurance as a prerequisite for participation in any activities of the organization.

2. If your organization can be found negligent in any way, you may be liable for injury or accidents. To help reduce the possibility of claims of negligence, every organization should take the following steps:

   a. Every activity of the organization should be planned with safety as the top priority. The organization should make certain all participants are properly trained and have the proper equipment, if necessary, to safely engage in the planned activity. Someone properly trained in first aid and CPR should be present at all times during the activity. You should contact the Student Activities Center or your faculty advisor if you have questions about safely planning your activities.

   b. All participants should be thoroughly warned about the risk of injury involved in participation. The warning should contain as much detail as possible. Recreational sports activities, for example, should specify what kinds of injuries could occur. If travel is involved, particularly foreign, any hazards should be specifically disclosed. If the conduct of other people outside your organization poses some risk, make that known.

You should have students sign a statement that they recognize that participation in the organization's activities constitutes a possible risk. The following acknowledgement form can be used:

I am aware, as explained by (name of organization), that (describe the activity) poses certain risks, including but not limited to: (describe risks). I am voluntarily participating in this activity with full knowledge of the risks involved.

_________________________ SIGNATURE     _________DATE

One-Time/Special Event Insurance Policies

Your organization might want to explore the option of purchasing one-time or special event insurance for your activities. The Student Activities Center can help get you connected to an agency that specializes in these types of policies.

Although the University of New Mexico recognizes an organization as an officially Chartered Student Organization, recognition does not constitute an endorsement of the organization's programs or activities.

Safety Tips for Student Organizations

- Be concerned with safety. The key is not to be negligent - give proper safety instruction and provide/require the proper equipment to use.
- Have a first aid kit & safety personnel at events.
- You can train for first aid and CPR through the Recreation Services office or the Red Cross.
- Bring a trainer/advisor/coach to all events.
- For events with risk of physical injury learn blood-born pathogens training (OSHA training).
- Require health insurance of all event participants.
- Purchase one-time-event insurance for your organization.
- Require participants to sign an acknowledgment of risk.
- Contact UNM Safety and Risk Services to be sure you are planning a safe event or for safety tips.
Funding From Student Government

ASUM & GPSA FUNDING

Some chartered student organizations are eligible to receive funding from ASUM or GPSA. For specific dates and times in the funding process call the student government offices, ASUM (SUB Room 1016, 277-5528) or GPSA (SUB Room 1021, 277-3803). The ASUM and GPSA constitutions are published on their UNM websites. The basic procedure is as follows:

Funding From ASUM (Undergraduate)

ASUM Spring Allocation Process
This is the primary funding process for undergraduate student organizations. Funds are requested in the spring semester preceding the fiscal year in which they will be used. Each UNM fiscal year is from July 1 to June 30. To participate in the spring semester budget process you are required to attend a MANDATORY workshop. At the workshop you will be given the necessary forms to complete, as well as detailed instructions. Contact the ASUM for workshop dates. Each group should realize overall requests for funds exceed the amount which is actually available so many budgets are reduced before approval is finalized.

At the workshop you will be given a deadline for submitting your itemized budget request. It is imperative you meet this deadline to be considered for funding. Once your request is received, a hearing date and time will be assigned to your organization. The budget hearing is your opportunity to explain your budget and answer any questions the ASUM Finance Committee may have. It is your responsibility to be present at the budget hearing. If you are unable to attend the hearing at the assigned time, your organization must contact ASUM in advance to request a change in time. The ASUM Finance Committee will submit budget proposals to the ASUM Senate for approval. Once the Senate approves the budget it must finally be approved by the ASUM President. Your funds will be available the following July 1st.

ASUM Fall Budget Process
The fall budget process is reserved for student organization who missed the spring budget process or are new student organizations. Contact ASUM for deadlines and the workshop schedule.

ASUM Special Appropriations Process
Special circumstances (travel, computers, special events) may require a student organization to request funds during the time between the fall and spring budget processes. In order to request an appropriation from the Senate the student group must fill out the budget forms as in the allocations process. There are no workshops, but it is suggested the organization request assistance from a member of the Senate and/or the Student Government Accounting Office. You will be required to have a member of Senate sponsor your appropriation bill on the floor of the Senate. After you submit your request, a representative from your organization is required to attend the next Senate Finance Committee meeting to explain your request and answer any questions that the committee may have. The Finance Committee will make a recommendation to Senate. The amount Senate approves will be available to your organization upon the approval of the ASUM President.

Funding From GPSA (Graduate & Professional)

GPSA Spring Allocation Process
Requesting funds from the Graduate and Professional Student Association (GPSA) is similar to the ASUM allocation process as outlined above. To participate in the process, you will be required to attend a mandatory workshop in the spring. At this workshop you will be given the necessary forms to complete and detailed instructions. You will also be given a deadline for submitting your itemized budget. It is imperative that you meet this deadline to be considered for funding. Once your budget is received, a hearing date and time will be assigned to your organization. The budget hearing is your opportunity to explain your budget and answer any questions the GPSA Finance Committee may have. You are responsible for being present at this meeting. If you are unable to attend the hearing at the assigned time, you must contact GPSA in advance to request a change in time. The GPSA Finance Committee will submit its proposed budget to the entire GPSA council for approval. If the budget is approved, your funds will be available the following July 1st.

GPSA Student Research Grant (SRG)
The Student Research Grant (previously known as SRAC) funds travel and lodging to conduct research related to the completion of a degree, as well as the cost of research materials relevant to the applicant's field. The SRG also funds travel to conferences to present research. The GPSA Grants Committee runs three funding cycles a year. The deadlines for the SRG are the sixth Friday of the semester and Spring semester, and the second Friday of the summer term. Applications will be considered for research or travel during the current semester, as well as one semester retroactively. Students may receive up to $500 per academic year through the SRC (beginning with the summer funding cycle).

GPSA Professional Development Grant (PDG)
The Professional Development Grant (previously known as the Specialized Travel (ST) grant), was created in 1998 to help graduate and professional students with travel expenses not covered under the SRG (previous SRAC grants). This includes travel to job interviews, clinicals, conferences at which the applicant is not making a presentation, and other professional travel or related costs. Students may receive up to $500 per academic year through the Professional Development Grant. Academic years begin with Summer, then Fall and end Spring.

GPSA New Mexico Research Grant (NMRG)
The New Mexico Research Grant (previously known as the GRD grant) may fund travel, lodging, supplies, and other costs related to field research. This grant is intended to help cover larger or longer-term projects than the SRG. Projects with a New Mexico state agency require a letter of recommendation from a representative of the agency, and are eligible for up to $5000. Other research projects are eligible for up to $3000.

The GPSA Grants process is entirely paperless. GPSA grant applications and the scoring rubric used for evaluation can be found at: http://gpsa.unm.edu. The GPSA offers four grant writing workshops per semester with information on how to craft a high quality grant. Consultations with GPSA writing coaches are available the week before each grant is submitted. Students are highly encouraged to attend preparatory workshops and consultations to best prepare their submissions.

Student Government Accounting Office (SGAO)

Accounting & Financial Responsibilities Of Funded Organizations
Because funds received by ASUNM and GPSA are accounted for in The University of New Mexico accounting system, they are subject to the policies and procedures governing all purchases made in the name of The University of New Mexico. The Student Government Accounting Office, Student Union 1018, 277-7888, processes the accounting and paperwork for these funds. This office can help you understand the policies and procedures. They offer workshops for all groups which instruct you in the proper forms and procedures for using your funds. For more information see their website at sgao.unm.edu.

Student Organization Bank Accounts & University Funds

General Policy
All student organizations who receive funds from ASUNM, GPSA, Student Fees or other University Funds, must deposit all funds received from any source (dues, fundraisers, donations, etc.) into a University account to be spent via UNM policies and procedures. Student organizations who receive any source of University funds are not allowed to have accounts at banks or credit unions. The Student Government Accounting Office is set up to assist your organization with this process and will answer any other questions you may have in regards to this policy.

Student organizations who do not receive any ASUNM, GPSA, Student Fees or other University Funds may keep their money in a bank or credit union. However, the University of New Mexico, UNM or any derivative may not be used in the name on the account.

Donating Money or Gifts from a Fundraiser
The above policy also applies to any money deposited in a university account (self-generated/fundraised/donated money is included as well). All self-generated money deposited with SGAO is subject to all UNM spending policies, and in some cases, governmental gross receipts tax. University policy prohibits making monetary donations to off-campus charities, political campaigns and the purchase of gifts. If your organization plans to fundraise and deposit your money at UNM, please make yourself aware of how your organization may be affected by visiting the following websites:

Fundraising & Event Planning

Fundraising By Student Organizations

General Policy
Fundraisers on campus by student organizations are allowed, but several campus policies and state laws dictate how the money generated can be used upon completion. On-campus groups that use University facilities for money-making purposes will use the proceeds only for the operating purposes of their organization. No on-campus group will use its University relationship and privileges as a paper authorization for any other group. The New Mexico State Constitution states “Neither the state nor any county, school district or municipality...shall directly or indirectly lend or pledge its credit or make any donation to or in aid of any person, association or public or private corporation...”. This basically means student organizations may not use their free University resources to do a fundraiser if the proceeds go to a non-UNM entity. Student Organizations may use their free university resources to raise money for their own general operating costs.

Donating Money or Gifts from a Fundraiser

The above policy also applies to any money deposited in a university account (self-generated/fundraised/donated money is included as well). All self-generated money deposited with SGAO is subject to all UNM spending policies, and in some cases, governmental gross receipts tax. University policy prohibits making monetary donations to off-campus charities, political campaigns and the purchase of gifts. If your organization plans to fundraise and deposit your money at UNM, please make yourself aware of how your organization may be affected by visiting the following websites:

Spending Policy: http://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/4000/4000.html
Tax Information: http://www.unm.edu/~taxweb/taxggrt.html

Fundraising projects by University or non-University personnel for the benefit of UNM must be coordinated through the Development Office, 277-4503, to ensure the establishment of mutually beneficial working arrangements. Periodic solicitation of individual donors for such things as library materials, works of art and other non-cash gifts need not be approved prior to the solicitation, but the Development Office should be kept informed of such activity. Funds or gifts-in-kind generated for University use are to be reported to the Development Office on the standard form available through the office or by copies or relevant correspondence.

All funds raised in the name of UNM and deposited in University accounts must be managed and administered according to policies and procedures of the University Business Office and in compliance with state statutes.

SUB Charitable Giving Policy

Planning Events, Food Sales & Facilities

Student Organization Events

Events, when planned properly, can be a very rewarding function of student organizations. Take the time to plan through all the details to maximize the experience for both you and the attendees. Scheduling
To schedule space for meetings or social events, one of the authorized persons designated on your chartering form can make arrangements for space in the SUB. The Student Union Event Planning Office staff can assist you with all of your event planning needs. The SUB has new procedural rules in place for scheduling by all chartered student organizations that have recurring meetings throughout the semester.

In order to schedule any rooms in the SUB, the organization should be aware of the renewal process for chartering at the beginning of the fall semester. Organizations that reserve meeting space in advance but do not re-charter, will have their reservations cancelled. Rooms will be allocated on a first come, first serve basis. Scheduling a special one-time meeting, event or conference can be accomplished by meeting with the scheduling staff the SUB at least seven (7) business days prior to the event. For larger events, it’s best to give a long lead time to reserve space. Please note that for school holidays and breaks, the Student Union Building may be closed or have abbreviated hours. All events taking place within the SUB are scheduled through the Student Union Event Planning Office in room 1094 on the south side of the plaza level of the Student Union Building. You can also reach them by phone: 505-277-5498, e-mail: subevent@unm.edu or web site: http://sub.unm.edu.

Policy on Freedom of Expression & Dissent
UBPPM 2220

1. General
As an institution that exists for the express purposes of education, research, and public service, the University is dependent upon the unfettered flow of ideas, not only in the classroom and the laboratory, but also in all University activities. As such, protecting freedom of expression is of central importance to the University. The exchange of diverse viewpoints may expose people to ideas some find offensive, even abhorrent. The way that ideas are expressed may cause discomfort to those who disagree with them. The appropriate response to such speech is speech expressing opposing ideas and continued dialogue, not curtailment of speech.

The University also recognizes that the exercise of free expression must be balanced with the rights of others to learn, work, and conduct business. Speech activity that unduly interferes with the rights of others or the ability of the University to carry out its mission is not protected by the First Amendment and violates this policy.

2. Core Principle
The University is committed to tolerate all peaceful speech activities carried out upon the campus unless those activities destroy or materially damage property, materially disrupt other legitimate University activities, or create a substantial health or safety hazard. This policy applies to all buildings, grounds, and property owned or controlled by the University.

3. Activities
3.1. Speech Activities
Speech activities protected by this policy include speakmaking, praying, the distribution of written materials, picketing, assembling in groups, demonstrating, sidewalk chalking, erecting symbolic structures, and any other actual or symbolic speech or conduct intended to communicate an idea.

3.2. Legitimate University Activities
Legitimate University activities include teaching, research, and public service; all of the administrative operations supporting those activities; and the performance of all University approved educational, commercial, research, professional or other activities by public or private contractors, tenants, or permittees. An activity scheduled under Section 4. herein is a legitimate University activity.

3.3. Materiau Disrupting Activities
A speech activity materially disrupts other legitimate University activities when a reasonable person is unable to effectively perform a legitimate University activity because of the speech activity taking place. Examples of when a speech activity may materially disrupt other legitimate University activities include, but are not limited to:

- Conducting the speech activity at a volume that substantially disrupts the normal use of classrooms, offices, laboratories, and other University facilities or grounds;
- Physically preventing persons from entering or leaving a building or premises;
- Conducting a speech activity inside a building and not ending it at or before the close of the building's regular hours;
- Destroying or materially damaging any property; or
- Creating a substantial health or safety hazard.

4. Scheduling
Subject to the exceptions described in Section 4.1. below, scheduling to use University facilities for speech activities is not required. Users, however, should be aware that many facilities, both indoor (e.g. classrooms) and outdoor (e.g. Johnson Fields), are used for regularly scheduled activities that have priority over other uses. In order to reserve the desired space and avoid conflicts with other users, groups or individuals wanting to use a regularly scheduled University facility for a speech activity are encouraged to schedule it at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance with the University Student Activities Center, or the office that schedules the desired venue, as advised by the Student Activities Center. Users who fail to schedule a speech activity that occurs and unduly interferes with a prior scheduled activity are in violation of this policy.

4.1. Scheduling Required
Because of size, safety, logistics, and other considerations, the following types of speech activities must be scheduled in advance:

- Assemblies or large events in a University auditorium or similar facility. Users must schedule such events following the procedures of the appropriate University office that oversees the facility.
Campus Policies - Outdoor Events, Sound & Posting

- Planned demonstrations on campus. A planned demonstration is a public manifestation of protest, condemnation, or approval; taking the form of a mass meeting, procession, picket, or similar activity which is organized and promoted more than a day before the event. Users must schedule such events with the Student Activities Center at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance. This does not apply to spontaneous demonstrations for which there is no prior promotion or organization or where events do not allow at least twenty-four (24) hours notice in advance. In such situations, as much prior notice as possible must be provided to the Student Activities Center.

- Building a symbolic structure on campus, which must be scheduled with the Student Activities Center at least twenty-four hours in advance. Scheduling does not operate as a process for prior approval of speech activities based upon content. Speech activities will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis for the requested location. Events will not be scheduled only if there is a scheduling conflict with an earlier planned event or if the requested event will clearly result in a violation of this policy. The viewpoint to be expressed through the speech activity is not a factor in scheduling. A decision not to schedule an event may immediately be appealed to the University President or designee.

5. Enforcement

Any person violating this policy may be subject to:

- Institutional disciplinary proceedings under the Student Code of Conduct if a student or the Visitor Code of Conduct if a visitor.
- Violations by faculty or staff will be referred to the appropriate department or academic unit;
- An order to leave the premises or property owned or controlled by the University by the police or a person in charge of the property; and/or
- Arrest for violation of state law(s).

Main Campus Rules for Outdoor Events, Sound, and Posting

Student Activities Center, April 2002

All entertainment, social activities and other similar events which are planned for on-campus outdoor areas must be cleared by an official of the Student Activities Center prior to the event. In order to reserve the desired space and avoid conflicts with other users, groups or individuals wanting to use University grounds for an outdoor event are encouraged to schedule it at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance with the University Student Activities Center, or the office that schedules the desired location, as advised by the Student Activities Center.

The sponsoring group shall be responsible for the general conduct and atmosphere of the event. Members from the sponsoring organization or group must be present for the duration of the event.

No disruption of UNM business and classrooms will be allowed.

Adequate security as determined by the Student Activities Center in consultation with the UNM Police Department must be provided. Based on space availability, logistics, and security concerns, determination of the duration and location of an event will be made by the Student Activities Center. The Student Activities Center will determine whether the event will be open to the public and whether advertising to the off-campus community will be allowed.

Sound

The production of sound, either amplified or non-amplified, in conjunction with an outdoor event or speech activity under UBPPM 22200 may not substantially disrupt educational activities and other University business. The Student Activities Center reserves the right to set event location, permissible sound levels and amplification so as to minimize the adverse impact on University activities.

Sound amplification is of particular concern. During regular business hours (8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., Mon.-Fri.) amplification is allowed from noon to 1:00 p.m. in areas that will not substantially disrupt university activities. Outside of regular business hours, amplified sound may not substantially disrupt University residential areas and the surrounding city neighborhoods.

During the week of final examinations no events involving amplified sound will be scheduled.

If amplified sound is substantially disruptive, the event sponsor will be asked to reduce the volume or face termination of the event. At no time may amplified sound exceed 88 decibels at the source.

Posting

Placement of posters, notices, fliers or painting of signs at any time on any permanent University structures, such as buildings, utility poles, fountains, fixed refuse containers and trees on campus is prohibited. Stakes may not be driven into the grass.

Displays painted or posted improperly will be removed by maintenance crews. Any extraordinary expense will be charged to the persons or groups responsible for the damage. Posting with glue is prohibited.

Chalking is not permitted on any permanent University structures or on sidewalks under balconies or overpasses not exposed to the elements. Chalking is also prohibited within fifteen feet of the entrance to any building. Chalking is not permitted at Lobo Village.

Posters, notices and flyers may be placed on the outdoor kiosks. These are cleaned off once a month. Posting inside of campus buildings may be done with the prior approval of the office in charge of the area.

Notices and flyers may be distributed at any outdoor area on campus consistent with the orderly conduct of University affairs, the maintenance of University property, and the free flow of traffic and persons. Efforts must be made to avoid litter. Any expense incurred by the University for clean-up will be charged to the person or organization responsible. Materials shall not be forced upon others; excessive hawking or shouting at persons is prohibited.

Violations
Persons violating any of these rules may be subject to disciplinary action under the Student Code of Conduct or the Visitor Code of Conduct. Violations by faculty or staff will be referred to the appropriate department or academic unit. In addition, violators may be subject to an order to leave University property and/or arrest for violation of State law(s).
