PREFACE

This guide is intended to explain guidelines pertaining to Chartered Student Organizations (CSOs) and describe resources that may be helpful to CSOs. Because many departments at The University of New Mexico (UNM) work with CSOs, a list of important department contacts is included at the end of this document.

Readers should be aware that this handbook is not a complete statement of UNM's guidelines and procedures. The University reserves the right to change, without notice, any procedure, guideline, or program appearing in the CSO handbook. If you have questions about the information in the CSO Handbook, please contact the Student Activities Center:

PURPOSE OF CHARTERED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Chartered student organizations may be formed to further the common interest of the members of the group and the University community. Such organizations develop many opportunities for learning which supplement and reinforce the classroom activities of students. They also provide students with the opportunity to engage in a wide range of activities and expand forums for discussion and debate.

Chartering of an organization does not constitute an endorsement of its programs or purposes by the University. Chartering is the approved means of gaining official recognition. Misuse or nonuse of a charter will result in the withdrawal of recognition by the University. Neither chartered student organizations nor their officers have the legal authority to enter into contracts on behalf of the University (UNM Board of Regents Policy Manual – Section 4.6: Chartered Student Organizations).

DEFINITIONS & REQUIREMENTS

DEFINITIONS

Chartered Student Organizations (CSOs): are interest groups whose membership is comprised primarily, or entirely, of currently enrolled UNM students. CSOs are led by students and may be centered on a wide range of interests and fields of study. CSOs are formally recognized by the University and are conferred with privileges and benefits not offered to non-recognized groups.

Social Fraternities and Sororities: are interest groups whose membership is comprised solely of currently enrolled UNM students. Social fraternities and sororities are required to comply with all CSO guidelines. Additionally, fraternities and sororities must be members of the Interfraternity Council, National Panhellenic Conference, United Greek Council, National Pan-Hellenic Council or other university recognized representative council. The University establishes rules and regulations governing special fraternity and sorority activities, housing, recruitment, and system policies, through these councils, with final approval residing in the University administration through the Student Activities Center. Additional requirements apply to the social organizations.

Club Sports: are groups whose primary purpose to participate in sports activities as a CSO. Club Sports have special privileges and responsibilities, above and beyond the privileges and responsibilities of other CSO's. Membership is open only to currently enrolled students. In addition to completing all the requirements to become a chartered student organization, Club Sports must also complete additional training and reporting through Recreation Services.

REQUIREMENTS

As outlined in the Chartered Student Organization Guidelines (<https://pathfinder.unm.edu>), CSOs must comply with the following membership, financial, and procedural requirements:

- All Chartered Student Organization officers must be registered students at the University of New Mexico. Undergraduate students serving as officers must be registered for a minimum of six credit hours per semester. Graduate and professional students serving as officers must be registered for a minimum of three credit hours per semester.
- Each Chartered Student Organization must have a minimum of two officers.
- Each Chartered Student Organization must have at least five members accept invitations for associated membership and be listed on their roster in the charter registration system.
- One hundred percent (100%) of the membership of social fraternities and sororities and CSO's identified by the Student Activities Center as Club Sport organizations shall be UNM students registered for the requisite number of credit hours. For all other CSO's, at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the membership shall be UNM students carrying the requisite number of credit hours.
- The organization must have a faculty or professional staff advisor.
- Neither membership in the organization, nor services provided by the organization will be denied to anyone on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, or medical condition. This applies to all groups with the exception of those organizations specifically exempted in Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Exempt groups may not discriminate on any basis other than gender. Examples of exempt organizations are National Fraternal Organizations. Organizations may establish additional membership and academic eligibility for their organization.
- The CSO's current local constitution and/or bylaws must be on file with the Student Activities Center. The CSO must adhere to these governing documents.
- CSO's must meet all additional requirements developed by a University unit before using facilities or property under the control of that unit.
- CSO's have no insurance coverage from UNM for their activities. The University has insurance through the State of New Mexico Risk Management Division. However, the State insurance policy does not cover the activities of CSO's, their officers or members. Therefore, liability for injuries or damages to members of CSO's and/or third parties arising in connection with CSO activities are not covered by any UNM insurance.
- Two officers or members of each CSO must annually attend a Chartering Workshop given by the Student Activities Center which covers general information relevant to all chartered student organizations.
- Organizations receiving funding from the University must follow the fiscal policies and procedures of the University. In addition, organizations receiving ASUNM and/or GPSA funding must follow the fiscal guidelines developed by the Student Government Accounting Office (SGAO).

- CSOs must deposit all funds received from any source in a University account established by the University Controller if the organization also receives funding from ASUNM, GPSA, Student Fees, or other University funds. CSOs which do not receive funding from ASUNM, GPSA, Student Fees or other University funds and who have funds in off-campus financial institutions cannot use the name “University of New Mexico” or “UNM” in the title of the account or the University’s tax identification number to establish the account.
- The organization must adhere to all applicable University policies, rules, and regulations, including the Student Code of Conduct.
- If an event of the CSO is judged to threaten the health, safety or property of members of the University community, the request for scheduling space may be denied by the hosting venue or the Student Activities Center. Decisions can be appealed in writing to the Dean of Students.
- SAC reserves the right to change the name, category, or other information of a CSO in the registration system if it does not meet standards or proper evaluation of operations.

Failure to comply with these requirements may result in temporary or permanent loss of charter and/or sanctions against officers, members, or the group as a whole.

- The Dean of Students Office is responsible for addressing situations in which a CSO does not fulfill responsibilities outlined in the Chartered Student Organization Guidelines. When concerns arise, the Dean of Students Office may take appropriate action, including educational outcomes, placing the organization on probation, suspending its charter, or revoking its charter. The Office may also establish reasonable conditions and timelines for the organization to address and resolve identified concerns. A decision to suspend or revoke a CSO’s charter may be appealed to the Vice President for Student Affairs.
- A CSO, its officers, and its members may be held accountable for conduct that violated the Student Code of Conduct. A CSO and/or its officers may be held accountable for a member’s conduct when (1) the conduct was authorized, endorsed, supported, or encouraged by the organization or its leaders, officer, officials, or spokespersons, or (2) the organization failed to take reasonable steps to fulfill its responsibilities.

Individual accountability means that officers and members may be subject to review and, where appropriate, sanctions under the Student Disciplinary Procedure for their own actions or involvement in conduct that violates the Student Code of Conduct, Organizational accountability means that the CSO may be subject to review under the Student Disciplinary Procedure. For its actions or involvement in conduct that violates the Student Code of Conduct.

- The Dean of Students Office may request that officers, leaders, or identifiable spokespersons of a CSO take reasonable steps to prevent or address violations of these guidelines by the organization or by individuals acting on its behalf. Failure to make reasonable efforts to comply with such a request may be considered in determining whether a violation of these guidelines has occurred.

The full CSO Guidelines may be viewed at <https://pathfinder.unm.edu>. Additional requirements for Fraternities and Sororities, and Club Sports are outlined in the full Chartered Student Organization Guidelines. The CSO guidelines also cover Unchartered Student Organization activities on campus and any potential association with CSOs.

ANTI-HAZING POLICY

1. PURPOSE

The University of New Mexico (“UNM”) seeks to create a safe environment that contributes to student success and promotes the acquisition of knowledge. The university takes the prevention, threat, and elimination of hazing seriously, and all forms of hazing are strictly prohibited.

The purpose of this policy is to outline the prohibition of hazing at UNM; define hazing; describe the procedures for reporting hazing, describe the university’s response to reports of hazing; outline corrective action and discipline for violations of this policy; explain the process whereby individuals may obtain information about hazing misconduct; and provide information about hazing prevention and awareness resources and programs.

2. APPLICABILITY

Prevention of hazing is a shared responsibility and all UNM community members are responsible for conducting themselves in a manner that supports an environment free from hazing.

This policy applies to hazing that occurs on UNM property, at off-campus locations, at UNM-sponsored or affiliated events, and at non-University events, regardless of University approval or recognition.

Both individual student(s) and/or student organizations can be held accountable for violation(s) of this policy.

In addition to this policy, students and student organizations may also be subject to policies, regulations, and guidelines set by the NCAA, national or international organizations, and other affiliated oversight entities.

3. DEFINITIONS

Hazing: For the purposes of this policy, hazing is defined as an intentional, knowing, or reckless act committed by a person, whether individually or in concert with other persons against another person or persons, regardless of the willingness of such other person or persons to participate that:

1. was committed in connection with, initiation into, an affiliation with, or the maintenance of membership in, a student organization; and
2. causes or creates a risk, above the reasonable risk encountered in the course of participation at UNM or a student organization (such as the physical preparation necessary for participation in an athletic team or military training exercise) of physical or psychological injury.

Student: See Faculty Handbook D175 and Faculty Handbook D176 for the definition of student.

Student Organization: For the purposes of this policy, a student organization refers to any student group at UNM, including but not limited to a club, society, association, varsity or junior varsity athletic team, club sports team, fraternity, sorority, band, or student government—with two or more members enrolled at UNM, regardless of whether the organization is officially recognized by the University.

University Policy: A UNM written regulation or proscription, including but not limited to those found in the student Code of Conduct (“SCOC”), Regent’s policies, University Administrative policies, Compliance policies, Academic policies, student organization policies, and Residence Life regulations.

4. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

The following behaviors constitute examples of violation(s) of this policy, recognizing that similar behaviors not listed may also be prohibited:

1. Involvement in the planning, direction, or commissioning of hazing and/or being present during hazing.
2. Failing to intervene to prevent or stop hazing if the person has knowledge of a planned hazing activity.
3. Failing to assist or seek assistance if the person knows or reasonably should know that another is in danger from effects of hazing.
4. Whipping, beating, striking, electronic shocking, placing of a harmful substance on someone’s body, or similar activity.
5. Causing, coercing, or otherwise inducing sleep deprivation, personal servitude or exploitative labor, restrictions on personal hygiene, exposure to the elements, confinement in a small space, extreme calisthenics, or other similar activity.
6. Humiliating or degrading acts, whether physical, verbal, or psychological.
7. Causing, coercing, or otherwise inducing another person to consume food, liquid, alcohol, drugs, or other substances.
8. Causing, coercing, or otherwise inducing another person to perform sexual acts.
9. Any activity that places another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words or conduct.
10. Any activity against another person that includes a criminal violation of local, State, or Federal law.
11. Any activity that induces, causes, or requires another person to perform a duty or task that involves a criminal violation of local, State, or Federal law.

5. HOW TO REPORT HAZING

UNM encourages all members of the UNM community to report suspected hazing, including through anonymous submissions. Reports should include as much specific and accurate information as possible to support a thorough review. While anonymous reports may limit the University’s ability to respond, they can still help identify patterns or areas of concern.

The Dean of Students Office serves as the primary University office for receiving and addressing hazing reports. Reports may be submitted online at Submit a Hazing Report (dos.unm.edu). Additional campus resources and reporting options are listed in Section 8 of this policy.

Reporting suspected hazing to a national organization or third-party entity does not replace the importance of reporting directly to UNM.

Nothing in this section prevents any individual from reporting hazing or suspected hazing to a law enforcement agency.

6. UNM RESPONSE TO REPORTS OF HAZING

The Dean of Students Office holds primary responsibility for addressing student disciplinary matters. Hazing allegations are handled in accordance with disciplinary procedures as outlined in the UNM Student Disciplinary Procedure (“SDP”). International or national fraternal organizations or law enforcement agencies may conduct concurrent investigations.

A sanction will be issued only in matters where an individual Student(s) and/or Student Organization(s) has been found responsible for violating the Anti-Hazing Policy or Student Code of Conduct (“SCOC”) following the procedures outlined in the SDP. Sanctions may include any combination of administrative, educational, restrictive, or status sanctions as outlined in the SCOC or SDP.

7. HAZING TRANSPARENCY REPORT

Effective December 23, 2025, the University of New Mexico is required to publish a Hazing Transparency Report (“HTR”) identifying incidents of hazing involving student organizations that were reported, investigated and resulted in a finding of responsibility for conduct occurring on or after July 1, 2025. The HTR will disclose the name of the student organization, a general description of the violation(s), whether hazing involved the abuse or illegal use of alcohol or drugs, key dates (e.g., when hazing took place [if known], investigation start and end date, when a student organization was notified of the outcome, findings of responsibility, and assigned sanctions (if any).

Information provided in the Hazing Transparency Report (HTR) does not include personally identifiable information about any individuals. Student organizations under active investigation do not appear in the report until an investigation concludes with a finding of responsibility. Unconfirmed allegations or cases without a finding of responsibility are not included. Additionally, the HTR does not include incidents involving unrecognized or unaffiliated student organizations. UNM is required to update the HRT semi-annually (at least twice a year) and maintain entries in the report for five (5) years.

Annual statistics on hazing are available in the University’s Annual Security & Fire Safety Report beginning with the 2026 report. Hazing statistics include incident reports that meet the federal definition of hazing in Section 485(f)(6)(A) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)) and may include incidents that occur on-campus or in certain off-campus facilities affiliated with the University. These statistics do not reflect confirmed investigations or findings of hazing and may include locations beyond those listed in the Hazing Transparency Report.

UNIVERSITY NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

CSOs must comply with all University policies including Policy 2720: Prohibited Discrimination and Equal Opportunity and the Chartered Student Organization Guidelines. As such, neither membership in the organization, nor services provided by the organization will be denied to anyone on the basis of age, ancestry, citizenship status, color, disability, ethnicity, genetic information, military status, national origin, race, religion, or spousal affiliation. This applies to all groups with the exception of those organizations specifically exempted in Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

FEDERAL REGULATIONS

The statements and practices of each student organization (membership make-up, publications, constitution or by-laws, policies and procedures) should reflect the intent of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). CSOs who violate the aforementioned statutes and fail to take corrective actions will lose their chartered status. A brief description of each statute is provided below. If you have questions concerning the regulations, the Student Activities Center or the Office of Equal Opportunity.

TITLE VI OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

No person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program receiving Federal financial assistance.

TITLE IX OF THE EDUCATION AMENDMENTS ACT OF 1972

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

SECTION 504 OF THE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973

No qualified handicapped individual in the United States shall solely by reason of his/her handicap be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA)

Under the Americans with Disabilities Act, postsecondary institutions must ensure that all of their programs, including extracurricular activities, are accessible to students with disabilities.

Individuals needing accommodations to participate in academic or extracurricular activities should contact the Accessibility Resource Center.

PRIVILEGES

CSOs represent a significant opportunity for students to develop leadership skills, build relationships, and facilitate engaging programs for students. To support these goals, the University offers CSOs certain privileges including:

- Use of a mailbox in the Student Activities Center
- Access to funding from the Associated Students of the University of New Mexico (ASUNM) and/or the Graduate and Professional Student Association (GPSA)*
- Free, or reduced rate, room reservations (select campus spaces only)
- Use of selected Student Activities Center equipment (tables, chairs, AV equipment)
- Assistance in organizing events, fundraising, and recruitment
- Listing in the printed Guide to Student Organizations and in the online Chartered Student Organizations Directory
- UNM hosted Index Fund (on-campus bank account)
- Free accounting services through the Student Government Accounting Office
- Event inclusion (Welcome Back Days, Friday Night Live, and more)

Any of the above privileges or other benefits of a CSO cannot be transferred or reallocated to a University department or an off-campus organization.

*Funding approval by each student government is determined by internal policies and is not guaranteed by University recognition.

CHARTERING PROCESS

WHY CHARTER?

Chartering leads to official recognition of the student organization by The University of New Mexico. As such, chartered student organizations are granted privileges including access to campus facilities, access to ASUNM and GPSA funding processes, and the ability to rent and checkout equipment from the Student Activities Center.

An organization may charter at any time of the year, however, all organizations must re-charter every fall (after August 1st) regardless of when they chartered the previous year. Organizations who charter by the established fall and spring semester deadlines will be listed in the respective editions of the printed Guide to Chartered Student Organizations.

Student organizations are not required to charter, however, unchartered student organizations operations on campus are very limited (see Chartered Student Organization Guidelines).

PRE-CHARTERING (OPTIONAL)

Pre-chartering is an optional process that allows new groups to operate temporarily while they are working to complete the chartering process. Pre-chartering allows a group to reserve meeting rooms and info tables free of charge in the Student Union Building, participate in campus events, and free use of SAC tables and chairs for tabling outdoors on campus. Pre-chartering Forms can be filed with the Student Activities Center. Pre-chartering is available for a limited period of time and is helpful in organizing a new group, recruiting new members, and publicizing activities.

CHARTERING A NEW ORGANIZATION

1. Attend a Chartering Workshop

The Student Activities Center sponsors chartering workshops in the fall and at least two officers or member are required to attend. Workshops are a brief review of the guidelines, procedures, and services available to chartered groups. A demonstration of the online chartering system will also be given. If there are no more group workshops scheduled, please set up a personal workshop with the Student Activities Center.

2. Create a Constitution

A constitution is a guiding document which outlines the purpose of the organization and the basic framework for how it will operate. It should be concise, including only the essential details of how the group should operate. Bylaws, though not required by UNM, can be much more detailed and outline step by step how different functions of the group should be conducted. Typically, bylaws are more often and easily changed (majority approval) while a constitution changes rarely and requires a higher level of approval such as two-thirds of the membership. The more detailed your document is, the better it functions. We always recommend taking extra time to outline the election process, removal of members and officers, and quorum.

The Student Activities Center offers a template that you can use to build a new constitution. If desired, download the template and adapt it to fit your group. Before submitting the constitution, delete the template instructions and save the file with the name of the organization (example: Scuba_Club_Constitution_2026).

Constitutions must include:

- Date approved or revised
- Name of the organization
- Purpose statement explaining why the group exists and what it seeks to do
- Membership eligibility criteria (CSOs may distinguish participation on the basis of grades, academic requirements, and meeting attendance; CSOs may not set membership criteria that violate non-discrimination laws or UNM policies)
- Membership removal
- Officer titles and description of duties for each position
- Officer selection and removal procedure
- Procedure for calling meetings and, if applicable, describe different types of meetings
- Election procedures (time of year, dispute resolution, in-person/virtual, supervision)
- Definition of a quorum (the portion of members that are required for the organization to conduct business; usually stated as a fraction such as 2/3 or 3/4).
- Procedure for amending the constitution.

3. Complete a Chartering Form

Complete the online Chartering Form which is available through the Student Activities Center's website \(sac.unm.edu\). Use your UNM NetID and password to log in. If you have problems logging in, contact the Student Activities Center.

At least two officers or members of the group must attend a Charter Workshop. Before starting the form, prepare the following information:

Optional Information

CSOs can provide additional information to help prospective members learn more about the group including:

1. Nickname or acronym
2. Secondary category
3. Dues/fees charged by the organization
4. Website and/or Facebook link
5. Additional officers and members
6. Meeting information
7. Other documents (meeting minutes, flyers, etc.)

Your charter will not be complete until the Student Activities Center has received a completed online charter registration, with approved Constitution, advisor has consented to advise the group, and 2 officers have accepted membership, and 5 members are connected to the organization in the chartering system. The CSO administrator will receive an email upon charter approval.

RENEWING AN EXISTING GROUP

CSOs who wish to retain their recognition from year to year must re-charter in the fall semester. To re-charter, two officers or members of the group must attend a Re-chartering Workshop and update the CSO's online charter record. If the group's constitution has changed from the previous year, a new version must be uploaded to their charter record. Failure to re-charter will result in loss of CSO privileges.

WEBSITES & EMAILS

EMAIL ADDRESSES

CSOs may request a UNM email address specifically for your organization. All student organization addresses will have a customizable front end and finish with @clubs.unm.edu. To request a @club email, email sac@unm.edu the name of the organization, the customizable front end, and a list of members/advisors you would like to have access to the account. The @club email will be accessible from Microsoft 365 and instructions will be mailed to each member on how to access the account. Each club will be able to add and delete user access to this account by emailing sac@unm.edu. An officer listed on the charter form for the organization must make the request. Only groups who have completed the chartering process will be able to request.

WEBSITES

To request a website for your group, visit UNM IT's Help Portal (unm.service-now.com) and search for "Internal: IT Service Desk Support" and select that option. It should be first on the list. The "Requestor" field should have your information in it. In the "On behalf of" field, enter in Ryan Lindquist (depar@unm.edu will be the email associated). Under the "Service Offering" dropdown, scroll to and select cPanel. In the Description box, enter in the information that you are working to setup a website for your student organization. Enter in your club's UNM email to be associated with the cPanel account. Once you submit your request, you will need to complete web content management system (WCMS) training. WCMS training is offered online through the UNM Webmaster. Once you have made the cPanel request and completed the training, please notify SAC via e-mail (sac@unm.edu) so they can approve the creation of your website.

MAILBOXES

Student organizations may request the use of a mailbox at the Student Activities Center. Boxes are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. CSOs can request a mailbox on the online Chartering Form or by emailing sac@unm.edu. Student organization addresses should read

< Student Organization Name >
Student Activities Center, Box _____
Student Union Building Room 1018
MSC 03 2210
1 University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM 87131-0001

*Example: Scuba Club of UNM
Student Activities Center, Box 66
Student Union Building, Room 1018
MSC 03 2210
1 University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM 87131-0001*

Assign an officer mailbox duty and check the mail at least once per week. Mail delivery continues during the summer semester. Don't forget to check your box during that time. Boxes are for organization use only and no personal mail should be addressed to the box.

If a box has not been emptied for an extended period of time, the Student Activities Center will send an email request for the box to be emptied within a week. After that time, if no action has been taken, the mailbox will be closed and all mail will be returned to the sender. If your organization disbands or no longer requires a mailbox, you must notify SAC.

ADVISORS

FACULTY OR STAFF ADVISOR ROLE

The University strives to enhance student life beyond the classroom. One means to this objective is through informal contact between faculty/staff members and students. Since each chartered student organization at UNM is required to have a UNM faculty or staff advisor, it is an expectation that advisors will view their role as an opportunity to fulfill this goal. The advisor can play a significant part in the development of the group by helping to formulate policies, train new officers, and assist with regular program planning. In large organizations, the advisor may work primarily with the officers. In small groups, the advisor may have the opportunity to work with the entire membership. The advisor should attend a sufficient number of the group's activities and meetings in order to know how the group is functioning.

Advisors should, at a minimum, ensure their organization completes CSO requirements and complies with University policies. Additionally, advisors can plan an important role in furthering the long-term success of a group by keeping a record of procedures and important documents. When helping plan events, advisors should work closely with students to minimize risk and liability. An advisor should also help the group evaluate its activities to determine whether they justify the time, abilities, energy, and resources devoted to them.

Faculty and staff members are notified via email when they are listed as advisors for CSOs. If they are unwilling to serve as an advisor, they should contact the Student Activities Center immediately upon receipt of the email. If an advisor resigns, they must notify the Student Activities Center as soon as possible. CSOs without an advisor will be given a two-week provisional period to select a new advisor. CSOs operating without an advisor will be temporarily inactivated until a new advisor is selected.

ADVISOR RESOURCES

The Student Activities Center is always willing to meet with advisors to discuss how they can better assist the student organizations they work with. To set up an appointment, contact our office via phone or email. We can assist with subjects such as liability and risk reduction, conflict resolution, event planning, retreats, elections, parliamentary procedure, campus rules and policies, motivation, and more. Our website (<https://sac.unm.edu/student-organizations/advisor-resources.html>) has lots of great items to assist advisors including the American Collegiate Personnel Associations' (ACPA) Advisor Manual. UNM Ombud Services is also a great resource for working through disputes within an organization. They are a neutral sounding board to help move towards any needed resolutions (ombuds.unm.edu).

CRIME REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

By serving as a student organization advisor, you are automatically designated as a "Campus Security Authority," or CSA. To comply with Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) and University Administrative Policy \(UAP\) 2745: Clery Act Compliance, all CSAs are required to register with the University through police.unm.edu (CSA Member Home), complete Required CSA Training annually, and update their CSA profile annually. If you are unable or unwilling to serve as a CSA you may not serve as an advisor. Instructions on how to register and complete the required training are emailed to you when designated as an advisor.

As part of its effort to collect information about crime on campus, the UNM Police Department surveys CSAs. Advisors will periodically receive surveys asking about crime reports. Advisors must disclose any crimes that were reported to them, even if they believe UNM police have already responded to the incident. For more information about crime reporting, contact UNM Police.

CLUB SPORTS

CSOs who focus is on sports competition are classified as Club Sports. These groups have special privileges and responsibilities, above and beyond the privileges and responsibilities of other CSO's. In addition to completing all chartering requirements, Club Sports must also complete additional training and reporting through Recreation Services.

REQUIREMENTS

- All members must be UNM students. Undergraduate members must be registered for a minimum of six credit hours per semester. Graduate and professional student members must be registered for a minimum of three credit hours per semester.
- Club Sports must agree to follow all policies and regulations as contained in the University of New Mexico Recreational Services' Club Sports Handbook.
- At least two officers must attend an orientation and safety meeting annually.
- All members of Club Sports must register through IMLeagues; individuals may not participate and Club Sports activities, including practices, until their name has been added to their team roster on IMLeagues.
- All members of Club Sports must sign an Informed Consent Form before participating in any activities or holding meetings.

PRIVILEGES

- Club Sports will have access to specialized training for American Red Cross First Aid, CPR, and Preventing Disease Transmission.
- Recreational Services will provide assistance in chartering, funding requests, facility reservations, recruitment, equipment requests, promotion, and advisement.
- Club Sports will be given consideration for locker space in the Student Union or Johnson Center for sports equipment purchased with university funds.

LOBO LAIR OFFICES & STORAGE SPACE

The Lobo Lair is located on the first floor of the Student Union Building (SUB). CSOs can utilize the Lobo Lair for office work, meetings, or recruitment purposes. The Lobo Lair conference room is available for CSOs to use, free of charge.

Office and storage spaces are available to Chartered Student Organizations that apply through the SUB Board's Space Allocation process which opens each spring. For more information about the allocation process, visit the Student Union Building website.

Lobo Lair tenants are required to check in and out each academic year. Even if your group is assigned the same space for the following year, you are still required to check out at the end of the spring semester.

EQUIPMENT CHECKOUT

CSOs may check out the following equipment for their events at the Student Activities Center:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| • Tables (maximum of 2) | Chairs (maximum of 3) |
| • Microphone/sound system unit | Extension cords for outdoor events |
| • Tailgate games | Coolers |
| • Pop Up Tents | Sandbags, tent weights, and fire extinguishers |

To check out equipment, one person from the group must leave their UNM ID card with the Student Activities Center. The individual will be held financially responsible for lost or damaged equipment. All items are available for use between 8 am and 5 pm, Monday through Friday. CSOs who fail to return equipment on time may lose checkout privileges.

Groups needing more tables and chairs, tents, staging, trashcans, or generators can request additional equipment from Facilities Management. Additionally, CSOs can request tents and sound equipment through a co-sponsorship from ASUNM Student Special Events.

FUNDRAISING AND DONATIONS

GENERAL POLICY

Fundraisers by, and donations to, student organizations are allowed, but more than likely will not qualify as tax-deductible. Sponsorships and sales may be coordinated by student organizations, but should be setup through SGAO using the Marketplace portal. These activities are not tax-deductible. Coordination of potential tax-deductible gifts should be done with SGAO prior to securing the donation. SGAO will work with student organizations to verify eligibility and coordinate work with the UNM Foundation. Information on both fundraisers and donations are available on the SGAO website: sgao.unm.edu.

All funds raised in the name of student organizations and deposited in University accounts must be managed and administered by SGAO and done according to policies and procedures of the University Business Office. All fundraisers must be in compliance with State/Federal statutes.

FOOD SALES

CSOs may host food sales as part of fundraising efforts, however, they must adhere to all UNM Policies as well as state and local laws. With regards to food sales, CSOs should be aware that:

- Shelf stable foods (packaged candy, water, sodas, chips, etc.) are ideal for food sales; other items can be sold but may require additional permits and approvals.
- The University has an exclusive contract with Pepsi; only Pepsi products may be sold on campus
- CSOs seeking to prepare and sell any food that is not shelf stable must obtain a Temporary Food Permit and get approval from UNM Environmental Health & Safety and Risk Services; approval can be obtained by filling out a Special Events Application and supplying all requested follow-up information
- Events with food trucks, propane, catering require lots of clearances. Reach out to the Student Activities Center for assistance with these items

RAFFLES

Under the New Mexico Bingo and Raffle Act, N.M. STAT. ANN. § 60-2F-26 (1978), individual units of the University and CSOs may hold up to four fundraising raffle or bingo events within a calendar year, and up to one raffle or bingo event within any three consecutive calendar months.

The number of raffles or bingo events must be kept within these limits to preserve an exemption from the Bingo and Raffle Act's licensing and permitting provisions.

Raffle tickets are not tax deductible as charitable contributions, except in the rare circumstance when the amount charged for a drawing exceeds the value of the top prize. When raffle winnings equal or exceed six-hundred dollars ($600), raffle organizers should notify the Taxation Department to discuss the IRS reporting and tax obligations of the University, which may include the need to issue an IRS Form 1099.

DONATING MONEY OR GIFTS FROM A FUNDRAISER

Since CSOs are not considered to be State entities by the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department, they are not subject to Government Gross Receipts Tax or Anti-donation laws on their self-generated funds. University Policy 1040, Section 8.2 allows CSOs to donate their self-generated funds to non-profit organizations. Therefore, the University exempts the CSO self-generated funds from UNM spending policies and procedures. Such funds are accounted for separately by SGAO and are not to be commingled with any State funds.

EVENT PLANNING

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Events, when planned properly, can be a very rewarding experience and are a great way to build engagement. When planning events keep in mind that your organization is responsible for financial arrangements, safety, liabilities, cancellations, scheduling, equipment and any other event details. It's a good idea to start planning far in advance so that you are able to reserve your first choice of event space, secure funding, and obtain any necessary permits.

The Student Activities Center organizes hundreds of events each year and are glad to share their knowledge with CSOs. For basic planning framework, please review the Event Planning Guide. For event planning help, contact SAC at 277-4706 or sac@unm.edu to set up an appointment.

Privileges of CSOs cannot be transferred or reallocated to a University department or an off-campus organization. Use of alcoholic beverages is prohibited on University property, with very limited exceptions.

PERMITS & EVENT APPROVAL

Certain activities require approval from the University and special permits from the University and/or state and local agencies. Contact the Student Activities Center to determine which permits you will need for:

- On-site cooking or food sales
- Events using food trucks or other off-campus food vendors
- Fires, fireworks, model rockets, or other pyrotechnic devices
- Closing streets, travel lines, or sidewalks
- Use of UNM parking lots as event sites
- Film and movie screenings
- Tents and temporary membrane structures
- Use of drones
- Events with attendance of 50 people or more
- Amplified sound (including non-electrified amplification; e.g. trumpets, drums, etc.)
- Serving alcohol on campus
- Activities that are non-routine for the University (e.g. concerts, parades, political rallies, runs/walks)

In addition to getting the appropriate permits for your event, you must also fill out a Special Events Application and submit it to Environmental Health & Safety for approval and Risk Services may require an insurance policy naming UNM and its Regents as additionally covered.

OUTDOOR SPACE RESERVATIONS

Outdoor spaces are free to reserve for CSO events. CSOs may check out 2 tables and 3 chairs for free at the Student Activities Center. Facilities Management Event Management Department can provide tables, chairs, tents, cord covers, trash cans, recycling bins, and a stage for a fee.

The Student Activities Center manages all outdoor space reservations on Main Campus (except Johnson Field and Residence Halls) and reserves the right to move, reschedule or cancel events based on space availability, location, event duration, logistics, and security needs. To prevent disruption of classes, research, and student services, no amplified sound is permitted in outdoor spaces without prior approval from the Student Activities Center. Additionally, the University prohibits the use of ground stakes and affixing items to trees, buildings, statues, or other fixtures.

To request an outdoor space on Main Campus, visit ems.unm.edu and submit your request at least two business days prior to the event. Please be aware that space reservations are not considered “approved” until the Student Activities Center staff send a confirmation e-mail.

To schedule events on North Campus, contact hsc-bewell@unm.edu.

INDOOR SPACE RESERVATION POLICIES

To reserve space for an indoor event, CSOs can submit a reservation request online. Most indoor spaces are free for CSOs to reserve, but some may come with fees depending on the type of event and equipment used. To reserve a room, submit your request on the appropriate website:

SOUND POLICY

The production of sound, either amplified or non-amplified, in conjunction with an outdoor event or speech activity under Policy 2220: Freedom of Expression and Dissent, may not substantially disrupt educational activities and other University business. The Student Activities Center reserves the right to set limits on location, permissible sound levels, and amplification to minimize adverse impacts on University activities. Refer to the Main Campus Rules for Outdoor Events, Sound and Posting in the Pathfinder for more information about sound on campus.

Sound amplification may not exceed 88 decibels at the source. Amplified sound is not permitted in any area of campus during regular business hours (8:00 am to 5:00 pm). Amplified sound includes electrified audio equipment (e.g. speakers, megaphones, microphones) and instruments which produce their own amplification (e.g. drums, trumpets, guitars). The only exception to this policy is that, with prior approval from the Student Activities Center, amplified sound is permitted in the Cornell Mall area between the hours of 12:00 and 1:00 pm.

Outside of regular business hours, amplified sound may not substantially disrupt University residential areas and the surrounding city neighborhoods. During the week of final examinations, no events involving amplified sound are permitted. If amplified sound is substantially disruptive, the event sponsor will be asked to reduce the volume or face termination of the event.

POLICE AND SECURITY COSTS

Student organizations booking events and activities on campus may be required to have security at the event, consistent with University Administrative Policy (UAP) 2230. Student organizations booking events or activities on campus should complete the Special Events Request Form on the UNM Police website. If the Major Events Committee determines security is necessary for an event or activity, they will determine the number, type, and timing of security needed for each event and notify the sponsoring organization. The cost of security may be the responsibility of the student organization booking the event or activity. More information on Police and Security Services is available in UAP Policy 2230.

RISK & LIABILITY

CSOs are not covered under the University's liability policy. CSOs whose activities involve physical activity or high risk of accidents should consider possible liabilities that may arise. CSOs, either collectively or as individual members, may be held financially liable for adverse outcomes resulting from negligence. As such, the University strongly encourages CSO members and advisors to do the following:

- Individual members should carry some form of health, accident or disability insurance as a prerequisite for participation in any activities of the organization
- Discuss safety and possible risks of activities ahead of time, then take steps to ensure all participants have proper training and equipment to safely engage in the planned activity
- Ensure an individual who is CPR and First Aid certified is present for physical activities
- Warn participants of the specific risks associated with an activity
- Purchase additional auto insurance coverage when using a personal vehicle to provide transportation to/from CSO activities
- Collect emergency contact information from participants when there is a risk of injury from participation
- Purchase liability insurance for special events (the Student Activities Center can assist)

When hosting activities that may have a safety risk, CSOs should have all participants sign a waiver. Waivers should contain as much detail as possible. Recreational sports activities, for example, should specify what kinds of injuries could occur. If travel is involved, travel-related hazards should be specifically disclosed. If participants are under 18, a parent or legal guardian must sign the waiver. The sample waiver below can be adapted for CSO events:

I am aware, as explained by (name of organization), that (describe the activity) poses certain risks, including but not limited to: (describe risks). I am voluntarily participating in this activity with full knowledge of the risks involved.

_____SIGNATURE _____DATE

You should contact the Student Activities Center or your faculty advisor if you have questions about risk management.

SPECIAL EVENT INSURANCE POLICIES

For certain types of events (festivals, concerts, animal events, et al.) your organization may be required to purchase one-time or special event insurances. The Student Activities Center can help get you select and purchase a one-time policy to cover your event. CSOs are responsible for the cost of purchasing these policies.

CO-SPONSORSHIP

CSOs may request co-sponsorship from Student Special Events (SSE) for on-campus events. To request co-sponsorship, CSOs must submit a Co-sponsorship Request Form at least 7 days prior to the event and present their event plan at an SSE staff meeting. SSE can offer pop-up tents and sound equipment as a co-sponsor. Co-sponsorship of CSO events is subject to approval by SSE staff and is not guaranteed.

FINANCIAL REGULATIONS

All student organizations who receive funds from ASUNM, GPSA, or other University entities must deposit all funds received from any source (dues, fundraisers, donations, etc.) into a University account. Student organizations who receive any source of University funds are not allowed to have accounts at banks or credit unions. The Student Government Accounting Office (SGAO) assists CSOs with this process and can answer any questions related to this policy.

Student organizations who do not receive ASUNM, GPSA, or other University funds, may keep their money in a bank or credit union. However, “The University of New Mexico”, “UNM” or any derivative may not be used in the name on the account.

FUNDING

ACCOUNTING & FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF FUNDED ORGANIZATIONS

Most CSOs are eligible to receive funding from the Associated Students of the University of New Mexico (ASUNM) and/or the Graduate Professional Student Organization (GPSA). Each group has separate deadlines and processes. Consult the ASUNM and GPSA websites for current deadlines.

Because funds received by ASUNM and GPSA are deemed State funds, they are accounted for in The University of New Mexico accounting system and are subject to the policies and procedures governing all purchases made in the name of The University of New Mexico. The Student Government Accounting Office (SGAO) processes the accounting and paperwork for these funds. This office can help you understand the policies and procedures. They offer workshops for all groups which instruct you in the proper forms and procedures for using your funds. Visit the SGAO website for more information.

ASUNM & GPSA SPRING BUDGET PROCESS

The spring budget process is the primary funding opportunity for student organizations. During the spring budget process, CSOs may request funding for the following fiscal year. The University’s fiscal year begins on July 1 and ends on June 30 each year.

Before requesting a budget, a CSO must send at least one representative to a Budget Workshop. At the workshop, participants will be given access to the necessary forms to complete and detailed instructions. CSOs must submit an itemized budget with their request. For workshop dates and budget request deadlines, visit the ASUNM and GPSA websites.

CSOs who submit their budget requests complete and on-time will be assigned a budget hearing date and time. The budget hearing is an opportunity to explain your budget request and answer any questions the respective Finance Committee may have. If a CSO is unable to attend the hearing at the assigned time, the organization must contact the Finance Chair in advance to request a change in time.

Following budget hearings, the Finance Committee will make funding recommendations to either the ASUNM Senate or the GPSA Council for approval. If a CSO is awarded a budget, their funds will be available July 1.

ASUNM FALL BUDGET PROCESS

ASUNM also operates a fall budget process for student organizations who missed the spring budget process or are new student organizations. The process runs in the same manner as the spring budget process. Contact ASUNM for deadlines and the workshop schedule. GPSA does not participate in a fall budget process.

ASUNM & GPSA APPROPRIATION PROCESS

CSOs may request an appropriation for unforeseen expenses not included in their budgets. Examples of eligible expenses are one-time costs for travel, event costs, and equipment (computers). The appropriation process is different and separate from the spring or fall budget processes. A chartered student organization may request an appropriation once per semester.

CSOs are not required to attend a workshop but should get assistance from the respective student government and/or the Student Government Accounting Office. For appropriation deadlines, visit the ASUNM and GPSA websites.

After submitting a request, the CSO will be invited to attend the next Finance Committee meeting to discuss the request. Following the meeting, the Finance Committee will make funding recommendations to either the appropriate council for approval.

PRO-RATED BENEFIT FUNDS

Pro-Rated Benefit (PB) Funds are available each semester to every recognized graduate/professional departmental student association (RDSA) that has chartered with the Student Activities Center. PB Funds are awarded based on the number of students enrolled in a department. The more students in a department, the more PB Funds the respective student organization is eligible to receive. To request PB funds, an RDSA must be currently chartered, met the Council meeting attendance requirement established by GPSA, complete a PB Funds Workshop and quiz, and have an SGAO account.

PB Fund requests can be submitted any time before the 8th Friday of fall or spring semester. Requests can be submitted via the form on the SGAO website. The form will ask for the following information:

- Organization name
- The name of the affiliated academic department
- Contact information of an officer in the organization
- SGAO Index Number
- The estimated number of students enrolled in academic department

Once a PB Fund Request is submitted, SGAO will verify the department's total enrollment upon the release of the Official Enrollment Report from the Registrar's Office. After enrollment is confirmed, PB funds will be transferred to the respective department within two weeks.

PB Funds must be requested by the eighth Friday of the fall and spring semesters respectively, if not, funds shall automatically revert to the GPSA General Fund.

For PB Fund information and the required online workshop, visit the SGAO website.

FREE SPEECH

The University values and encourages free expression. As such, any decisions regarding funding, event approvals, and space reservations for CSOs will be made in a content-neutral manner. UNM's freespeech.unm.edu website provides valuable information on policies and state laws, procedures for hosting events, educational links, and support services. When planning events on campus, CSOs should be aware of UNM's Policy on Freedom of Expression & Dissent \(UBPPM 2220\) outlined below.

GENERAL

As an institution that exists for the express purposes of education, research, and public service, the University is dependent upon the unfettered flow of ideas, not only in the classroom and the laboratory, but also in all University activities. As such, protecting freedom of expression is of central importance to the University. The exchange of diverse viewpoints may expose people to ideas some find offensive, even abhorrent. The way that ideas are expressed may cause discomfort to those who disagree with them. The appropriate response to such speech is speech expressing opposing ideas and continued dialogue, not curtailment of speech.

The University also recognizes that the exercise of free expression must be balanced with the rights of others to learn, work, and conduct business. Speech activity that unduly interferes with the rights of others or the ability of the University to carry out its mission is not protected by the First Amendment and violates this policy.

CORE PRINCIPLE

The University is committed to tolerate all peaceful speech activities carried out upon the campus unless those activities destroy or materially damage property, materially disrupt other legitimate University activities, or create a substantial health or safety hazard. This policy applies to all buildings, grounds, and property owned or controlled by the University.

ACTIVITIES

Speech activities protected by this policy include speechmaking, praying, the distribution of written materials, picketing, assembling in groups, demonstrating, sidewalk chalking, erecting symbolic structures, and any other actual or symbolic speech or conduct intended to communicate an idea.

Legitimate University activities include teaching, research, and public service; all of the administrative operations supporting those activities; and the performance of all University approved educational, commercial, research, professional or other activities by public or private contractors, tenants, or permittees. An activity scheduled according to section 4 of UBPPM 2220 is a legitimate University activity.

A speech activity materially disrupts other legitimate University activities when a reasonable person is unable to effectively perform a legitimate University activity because of the speech activity taking place. Examples of when a speech activity may materially disrupt other legitimate University activities include, but are not limited to:

- Conducting the speech activity at a volume that substantially disrupts the normal use of classrooms, offices, laboratories, and other University facilities or grounds;
- Physically preventing persons from entering or leaving a building or premises;
- Conducting a speech activity inside a building and not ending it at or before the close of the building's regular hours;
- Destroying or materially damaging any property; or
- Creating a substantial health or safety hazard.

SPEECH ACTIVITY SCHEDULING

Subject to the exceptions described in below, scheduling to use University facilities for speech activities is not required. Users, however, should be aware that many facilities, both indoor (e.g. classrooms) and outdoor (e.g. Johnson Fields), are used for regularly scheduled activities that have priority over other uses. In order to reserve the desired space and avoid conflicts with other users, groups or individuals wanting to use a regularly scheduled University facility for a speech activity are encouraged to schedule it at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance with the University Student Activities Center, or the office that schedules the desired venue, as advised by the Student Activities Center. Users who fail to schedule a speech activity that occurs and unduly interferes with a prior scheduled activity are in violation of this policy.

Because of size, safety, logistics, and other considerations, the following types of speech activities must be scheduled in advance:

- Assemblies or large events in a University auditorium or similar facility. Users must schedule such events following the procedures of the appropriate University office that oversees the facility.
- Planned demonstrations on campus. A planned demonstration is a public manifestation of protest, condemnation, or approval; taking the form of a mass meeting, procession, picket, or similar activity which is organized and promoted more than a day before the event. Users must schedule such events with the Student Activities Center at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance. This does not apply to spontaneous demonstrations for which there is no prior promotion or organization or where events do not allow at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice in advance. In such situations, as much prior notice as possible must be provided to the Student Activities Center.
- Building a symbolic structure on campus, which must be scheduled with the Student Activities Center at least twenty-four hours in advance. Scheduling does not operate as a process for prior approval of speech activities based upon content. Speech activities will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis for the requested location. Events will not be scheduled only if there is a scheduling conflict with an earlier planned event or if the requested event will clearly result in a violation of this policy. The viewpoint to be expressed through the speech activity is not a factor in scheduling. A decision not to schedule an event may immediately be appealed to the University President or designee.

ENFORCEMENT

Any person violating the University's free speech policy may be subject to:

- Institutional disciplinary proceedings under the Student Code of Conduct if a student or the Visitor Code of Conduct if a visitor. Violations by faculty or staff will be referred to the appropriate department or academic unit;
- An order to leave the premises or property owned or controlled by the University by the police or a person in charge of the property; and/or
- Arrest for violation of state law(s).

MARKETING RESOURCES

CSO WEBSITE CALENDAR

The Student Activities Center offers a calendar service for CSO events through the charter software program. This calendar is displayed on the homepage each time a student logs in to the portal. To advertise an event, navigate to the CSO portal on the sac.unm.edu website and click on the Forms link. Complete the form. Contact the Student Activities Center for further assistance.

UNM EVENTS CALENDAR

The main calendar for UNM is at unmevents.unm.edu. CSOs may submit their events for listing by going to the Calendar Website and clicking the red box to sign in with your UNM email.

KUNM 89.9

The University radio station has a calendar of events and public service announcements. Visit the KUNM Community Calendar to list an event or advertise your group.

UNM LOGO & MARK USAGE

The University of New Mexico logos and name may be used by student organizations with prior UNM Communications and Marketing (UCAM) approval, use of a licensed vendor, and proper design. Student organizations wishing to include UNM logos or name should know the approval and production process could take more than a month, so plan accordingly. First, work with a licensed vendor and submit the design for approval on the brand.unm.edu website. Under brand support you should see a Marketing Material Review Form to submit your design proposal. UCAM will notify you and the vendor if the project can move forward. In the design, UNM logos cannot be modified and text must be in a specific font. Club Sports have additional requirements for logo usage and Recreational Services will assist prior to use. CSOs may utilize their own logos and designs without UCAM approval if they do not contain UNM logos, name, or modified versions.

POSTERS & FLYERS

All UNM students have access to the full Adobe Creative Suite of desktop publishing tools. These programs are an excellent resource for creating high-quality marketing materials for your group. To download software and view tutorials, visit the University's Creative Campus website.

Standard 8.5" x 11" flyers can be printed from any printing kiosk. For custom materials, contact the UNM Copy Center or your print vendor of choice.

POSTING GUIDELINES

CSOs are encouraged to promote their events by posting on public campus bulletin boards and chalking on campus. Please refer to the campus posting guidelines on the Student Activities Center's website. The guidelines include a map with most public posting boards on campus.

Items that are posted improperly will be removed promptly by maintenance crews. The person or organization responsible for the posting may be billed for removal and repair. For questions about posting on campus, please contact the Student Activities Center.

INDOOR POSTING AREAS

Posting inside of campus buildings may be done with the prior approval of the building's manager. Postings inside of buildings must comply with all University policies and building manager approval does not supersede University policies.

OUTDOOR POSTING AREAS

Posters, notices, and flyers may be placed on outdoor kiosks. Items are removed on a monthly basis. Posters, notices, and flyers may be posted at any outdoor area on campus consistent with the orderly conduct of University affairs, the maintenance of University property, and the free flow of traffic and persons. Items may not be affixed to light poles, bollards, trees, refuse containers, buildings, or similar structures. Posting with glue or other adhesives is prohibited.

Efforts must be made to avoid litter. Expenses incurred by the University for cleanup will be charged to the persons or organizations responsible. Materials shall not be forced upon others and excessive hawking or shouting at persons is prohibited.

VIOLATIONS

Persons violating any of these rules may be subject to disciplinary action under the Student Code of Conduct or the Visitor Code of Conduct. Violations by faculty or staff will be referred to the appropriate department or academic unit. In addition, violators may be subject to an order to leave the University property and/or arrest for violation of State law(s).

CHALKING

Chalking is a great way to promote events and meetings. CSOs must comply with the following regulations:

- Chalking is permitted on sidewalks which are exposed to weather and foot traffic
- Chalking is not permitted on permanent University structures, unexposed sidewalks, vertical walls, or under balconies
- Washable sidewalk chalk is the only type permitted for use on campus
- Liquid chalk, spray chalk, art chalk, charcoal and paint are not permitted
- Chalking is prohibited within fifteen feet of the entrance to any building
- Lobo Village does not permit chalking anywhere on the premises

RECRUITING

New members are the lifeline of any organization. They bring new ideas, enthusiasm, and continuity with graduating and outgoing members. Here are a few suggestions for building membership:

- Look at your organization's purpose and future plans. Know what you are going to promote about your group. Define your strong points in order to sell them. What does your organization have to offer? Fun, friendship, prestige, leadership opportunities, skills development?
- Determine who your organization is for. What is the profile of the new member? Who are you targeting? This will help you focus, but don't exclude others who may be interested. Remember the University's nondiscrimination policy.

- How did your current members learn about the organization? What inspired them to join? Use this to create ideas.
- Participate in University events such as Welcome Back Days, Friday Night Live, Information Fairs, New Student Orientation, Senior Days, etc. Reserve the display tables in the SUB or outside to meet students and pass out information. Put meeting and event notices in the Daily Lobo and on the Chartered Student Organization website.
- Plan a reception, open house, or pizza party to welcome anyone interested.
- Show displays of previous events, newsletters, photos, and awards.
- Have an official welcome and brief explanation of the organization and introduce current and past officers. Announce upcoming events and meetings. Make a bookmark with dates, times and locations to hand out.
- Set up a website with your own address on the UNM server.
- If using social media, make sure to update pages regularly and use uniform messaging across platforms.
- Send out an email newsletter to prospective members (e.g. sophomores who will be eligible to join a junior society.)
- Provide a sense of belonging for current members. Word of mouth and enthusiasm of current members will create interest by itself.
- Establish continuity. There's high turn-over in student organizations from year to year. It's important to keep good records and create continuity between incoming and outgoing members. Otherwise, groups have to recreate the organization every year. This is too much work! Pass on the knowledge
